CINCINNATI CLUB
WOULD LIKE BUSH

Newark, N. J.—It will cost the Cincinnati club of the National League a salary of $22,500 a year and a three year contract to hire Ione Bush as manager.

These were the terms demanded by Bush during the conference last week with Sidney Weil, president and principal owner of the club. Weil, asked Mike Kelley, president of the Minneapolis Baseball club for his permission to negotiate with Bush and receiving Kelley's assent, the Reds' proxy went into a huddle here with the club's attorney who piloted the Millers to their first pennant in 17 years.

Weil is eager to engage Bush as Donie is the type of manager, he believes would take the Reds places in the annual National League scramble, but whether he will meet Bush's terms is something else again. Weil is determined to have a winning team, however, and may go that high to land him. I am very happy to hear that, and would like to stay there, but a fellow cannot be blamed for going where he can get the most money for his services. Bush said after his conference with Weil, it's going to take a lot of money to persuade me to leave Mike Kelley, and unless Weil meets, on terms of a salary of $22,500 a year on a three year contract, I will remain in Minneapolis.

Ione Bush, who was born in Cincinnati, I know that I would be staying into a tough job at Cincinnati and I want plenty for it.

Asked whether he would make an effort to retain Bush, President Kelley of the Millers said: "It would be impossible for me to meet the salary Bush has asked of Cincinnati. Nothing would please me more than to have Bush remain, but it would be unfair on my part to ask him to stay in Minneapolis if he can get the contract he asks from Cincinnati."

If Bush goes to Cincinnati, he would succeed Dan Hooley, who recently was released as manager after serving three years at a reported salary of $20,000 a year. Considering the success Bush enjoyed as manager of the Pittsburgh club of the National League, and Indianapolis and Minneapolis of the American association, it is quite probable that Weil and his associates would be willing to pay him $25,000 more a year than they paid Hooley.

JOE MCCARTHY HIGHLY PAID BALL MANAGER

New York, Joseph Vincent McCarthy, who never played a game of big league baseball in his life, because one of the highest paid managers in the history of the sport when he signed a new three year contract with the champion New York Yankees at an annual salary of more than $40,000.

Only Rogers Hornsby with the Chicago Cubs, Connie Mack with the Philadelphia Athletics, and John J. McGraw with the New York Giants ever approximated this salary.

Red faced Joe the chunky, square jawed Irishman who boosted the Yanks to the American League pennant and the world's championship this year, signed the papers in Colonel Jacob Ruppert's office at the Ruppert Brewery. No pomp or ceremony marked the affair.

When Colonel Jake, owner of the Yanks, emerged from the conference he announced McCarthy had signed at a substantial increase as a reward for his excellent work with the club. Ruppert declined to reveal the exact salary, but other reliable sources said it was over $40,000, an increase of at least $8,000 over his previous two year contract.

After the Yanks defeated the Chicago Cubs four games straight in the world series, McCarthy went to his home in Buffalo, N. Y. and came here to renew his contract. He indicated to reporters that he did not expect many changes in the Yanks for the coming season. We have a mighty fine team as it is, he said.

In the fall of 1929 McCarthy signed with the New York club, succeeding Bob Shawkey. He came straight from Chicago Cubs for whom he became pilot in the autumn of 1929. While in Chicago he built up the team by judicious selection of minor league players and two major deals which brought Kiki Cuyler and Hornsby to that club. Winning the 1929 season clinched his Chicago career, at

HEARD ON THE STREET

Visitor—I hear you've lost your parrot that used to swear so terribly.

Hostess—Yes, poor dear, we found him dead on the golf links.

Personal—A young woman, to whom black is particularly becoming, would like to meet a gentleman in poor health, object, widowhood.

They had been married only a year and were very much in love with each other. Upon the young husband's return home one evening the young wife coyly snuggled into his arms, and hiding her blushing face on his shoulder softly whispered: "Oh dearest, I have such a wonderful something to tell you. Soon—soon—there is someone coming, and then there will be three in our home."

"My precious one! Are you sure of this being true?"

"Oh, sure. Mother is coming to pay us a long visit."

though the Cubs were defeated four games to one by the Athletics. McCarthy is the only manager who won pennants in both major leagues.

A native of Germantown, Pa. he is 45 and married. He played baseball at Germantown high school and then went to Niagara university where he played on the team in 1905 and 1906. He broke into professional baseball in 1907 with Franklin in the old Interstate league, and was with Toledo in 1908, 1909 and 1910, and was transferred to Minneapolis in 1911. Minneapolis is let him go but he bobbed up as manager of Wilkes-Barre at the age of 25. He played second base two years at Buffalo, and was manager of Louisville in 1916. His work at Louisville attracted attention and he became manager of the Cubs.

No sir, said the clerk, I can't give you a room. The best I can do for you is to give you a half of a private dining room. There's a screen across it, and a lady has the other half, but I reckon she won't bother you.

Thirty minutes later he ran into the lobby, wild eyed and pale. He yelled to the clerk, then comes in dead!

I know it, said the clerk, but how did you find out?

A woman was having the upper room of her house painted, and she noticed that the painter was slacking on the job.

Painter, are you working? she shouted at the foot of the stairs.

Yes, ma'am, came the reply. I can't hear you.

Well do your thing I'm putting it on with a hammer?

Biddy I suppose you've been in the navy so long that you are accustomed to sea legs.

Not a lady, I wasn't even looking.

Mrs. O'Reilly—Good morning, Mrs. Murphy. I didn't see your old man lately. Was he out of town?

Mrs. Murphy—A gazette.

Mrs. O'Reilly—Dear, dear, you never see. Was he ill—heart?

Mrs. Murphy—No, my dear, the police.

Topsy Phumber—Well, here I am and here's dinner? Oppositely! Householder (three feet deep in water)—Not so bad. While I've been waiting for you I've taught the wife to swim.

I thought you said I was suitable to the judge he let me off. Well, didn't it work?

Sure did, in reverse. I said good morning judge. How's the boy today?

Mrs. O'Reilly—Did he say? Fine—ten dollars.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER
CROP PRICE GUARANTY

Take advantage of this offer . . .
Get the new equipment you need to reduce your production costs

Many farmers who need new machines for the economical production of their crops have been reluctant to buy them because of uncertainty as to the prices they will receive later in the year for these farm products.

In order to meet this situation, the International Harvester Company of Canada, Ltd., offers to farmers purchasing machines after this date, a definite price guaranty on wheat based on 77 cents a bushel for No. 1 Northern at Winnipeg, applying to a liberal portion of the purchase price of the machine. If the market price for wheat does not reach the guaranteed price at the time payment becomes due on notes given and maturing this year, the purchaser of machines under the plan will receive a credit equal to the difference.

Any farmer in Canada, regardless of where he lives or what he raises, can purchase McCormick-Deering farm machines under the terms of this offer. This is your chance to replace wornout and obsolete equipment on a favorable price basis. Let us explain the details of this remarkable plan and tell you just how to take advantage of it in equipping your farm with the new cost-reducing machines you need at a real saving.

Northern News

—(O)—

Following several days of cloudy weather it thickened up on Sunday night and on Monday morning there were two inches of snow on the ground. This will stop all threshing for some time as the stocks were tough from previous moisture. We had thought that nearly all the grain in this district was in the bins but we are credibly informed that there is a lot of threshing to do, especially south of Ceres as far as the Red Deer River. It is too early for winter to set in, but one can never tell what Alberta will do and this year may end like 1919 when snow fell on October 8th and continued on the ground for several months. If this should prove to be the case it will bring a real hand-ship on the men who are not finished with their fall work.

THEY SHALL NOT RIDE

—(O)—
The first arrests made in Hanna in enforcement of the "They shall not ride" ban, occurred Tuesday when four youths were taken from a freight train by Constable Watson of the C. N. R. police.

The youths pleaded guilty. They stated they had taken a three-fifths quint from Ceres to Craigmyle but the wet weather had resulted in out of pocket loss. They had no money to pay their fare and wanted to go home. Magistrate W. P.
Roberts advised them to seek out or means to return home and suspended sentence for seven days,
and with concurrence of the Crown, waived all costs. The youths left the court expressing thanks.
